

WORD AROUND THE WEBB

Staff Spotlight | Glenda Tate Williams

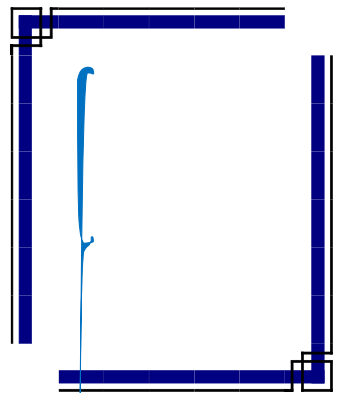

In this issue:

- Staff Spotlight
- Student Spotlight
- PTO Corner
- New Staff

Glenda has been employed at Webb Street School for the last five years and is currently a teacher for students with autism. She was previously a teacher at Grier Middle School, Southwest Middle School, and taught in Charlotte Mecklenburg Schools. She graduated from NC A&T University with a BA in Psychology and obtained Adaptive Curriculum Licensure from UNCC. She has two daughters, one son, and six grandchildren.

Student Spotlight- Christian Moreno-Stanfield

Christian is a senior this year. He has attended Webb Street since elementary school. Christian is a hard worker who enjoys helping his teachers and peers. When asked what his favorite thing about Webb Street was, he responded, "I like participating in the football and basketball games and going on field trips."

PTO Minute

The PTO is sponsoring a t-shirt sale now through November 24. Order forms were sent home this week. Please consider purchasing a t-shirt to show your school spirit and support the new PTO! Shirts will be delivered in mid December.

Cost: $10 (Short Sleeve)

Welcome to the Webb, Mrs. Lisa

Webb Street welcomes Mrs. Lisa Purvis to the staff. She is our new Transportation Coordinator. Julie Hay, our former Transportation Coordinator, is now our Payroll Secretary. Margaret Gt$ t toÄ oÄ 0 M r ll
